Defend us from civil disunity, and from the jealousies of race and class. Impel those in seats of authority to be faithful in their stewardship, that the good of all may be consistently preferred to the privilege of the few. Make us the princes of justice to all the world. May our faith for the future ever be coupled with a trust in Thee, and in Thy promise of a world of peace and prosperity; for human failure will one day be compensated by Divine triumph. Keep alive in us the fear of God, and grant that through this Nation's spiritual strength all the families of the earth may be blessed; Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen."

EXECUTIVE SESSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Senate in Executive Session on May 25, 1951, upon the recommendation of the Governor, removed M. C. Lewis from office as a member of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission of the State of Florida, District No. 5.

The Senate, in Executive Session on May 25, 1951, approved and adopted the following Report of the Senate Committee on Investigation of Suspended Officials:

"FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATION OF SUSPENDED OF-

FICIALS, IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF JAMES F. CROLEY AS MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION OF PASCO COUNTY, FLORIDA.

"The executive order of Hon. Fuller Warren, Governor of the State of Florida, dated November 10, A. D. 1950, suspending James F. Croley, Member of the Board of Public Instruction of Pasco County, Florida, occurred approximately two weeks before said official would have gone out of office due to the expiration of his term and said official was not reelected. The question of removal is therefore moot. The committee was advised by said official that in view of the fact that a reinstatement could not be effected because of the expiration of his term he would not desire a hearing before the committee. This official also on the same day of his suspension, and before he had received notification thereof, tendered his resignation by telegram to the Governor.

"Therefore under the circumstances your committee did not make an exhaustive investigation of the matter but has thoroughly examined the file submitted by the Governor and finds that the evidence sustained the action taken by him.

"Respectfully submitted this 23rd day of May, A. D. 1951.

RUSSELL O. MORROW
